
Date: 14/10/2019

Letter of Intent for Memorandum of Understanding (MoU)

Company Profile:

Electromedics Meditek Private Limited, previously known as Electromedics, Pune, a firm engaged in sales and service -support of medical equipments and allied services, has completed 18 successful years of business performance. During this period, we had about 5000 installations covering a wide market segment of institutional and corporate hospitals, medium and small-scale hospitals, nursing homes as well as clinics and home users.

In our ongoing process of new product identification and promotion, we are keen to analyses newer opportunities in tune with consolidating our strengths further. We have always been keen in establishing firm foundations with our principals and associates in order to serve our customers in a wholly satisfying way, which we feel is the key to consistent growth. We are authorized distributors for Philips-Respironics for Home-Hospital care Respiratory division, immedicable for hospital care respiratory division, Physio Control for range of defibrillator, We are also open for any good opportunities in terms of products and solutions, which will give a professional edge to our esteemed customers. Network to provide prompt response as well as services to our esteemed customers.

We are having a long term collaborations and Linkage with Department of Bio-Medical Electronics of Brijlal Biyani Science College Amravati.

It is the matter of immense delight to note that, we have prepared a syllabus of the proposed B. Voc degree for level 4, 5, 6 & 7 Further we are ready to sign detail MoU with the Department of Bio-Medical Electronics of Brijlal Biyani Science College, Amravati for all type of support for skill component of the course Brijlal Biyani Science College, Amravati, is submitting proposal to UGC for B. Voc degree in Medical Equipment Technology & Management under NSQF.

Shripad Thakurdesai.

For Electromedics Meditek Private Limited,Pune