MINI-BAZAAR REPORT

Mini-Bazaar (Exhibition Cum Sale) was arranged by the Department of Commerce and Management. Object of this activity is to entice their curriculum and give them practical exposure. Students have to study accounting, management, economics and law. How to implement this in real life is learnt by the students through such activities. To inculcate and enhance such qualities and skills, this activity is arranged by the department every three years i.e. once during three years of under-graduation.

This year the activity of Mini-Bazaar was arranged on 8th Oct and 9th Oct. It was inaugurated by Mr. Mayur Chandwani, an alumnae of our college. Mr. Sameer Shah, a young industrialist awarded Maharashtra Shashan Gaurav Puraskar was the chief guest of the function. Members of management were also present at the inauguration. Invitation of the event were sent to other colleges running commerce and management courses. Apart from this the alumni were also given information this event and invited to the same. There were 27 stalls of various items and 8 stalls of eatables. Students earned nice profits. They learnt co-ordination, co-operation team work, accounting principles, time management etc.

The activity was full of fun and frolic and education and enlightenment. Dr. N.G. Belsare, Principal of our college guided us. Mrs. N.J.Honrao, HOD the leader of the department, also guided the staff and students. Mrs. S.P.Nibjiya, the event ~~co~~-Coordinator of Mini-Bazaar alongwith her team of Mrs. G.A.Mohota Ms.S.R. Tiwari and Ms.A.R.Bhumbar and the students made the event a successful and memorable event.
